Mad Hatter Tea

Saturday, February 6, 2016

1 – 3:30 p.m.

Cady Inn at

Mill Race Historical Village

Northville, Michigan

“The Queen of Hearts, she made some tarts, All on a summer day: The Knave of Hearts, he stole those tarts, and took them quite away!” But don’t worry; we’ll have a delicious assortment of tea sandwiches, delightful scones and decadent desserts along with our signature Cady Inn Tea to serve on our finest china. Tea catered by Victoria’s Tea Salon.

“Where shall I begin, please your Majesty?” “Begin at the beginning,” the King said gravely, “and go on till you come to the end: then stop.” Oh yes, wear your favorite hat, your wildest hat, funniest or largest hat! Be creative! We’ll have a contest with prizes for the best hat and most unique hat. Let your imagination run wild. “Imagine yourself not to be otherwise than what it might appear to others that what you were or might have been was not otherwise than what you had been would have appeared to them to be otherwise.”

Hats, hats, and more hats! Learn about the history of hats, various styles of hats, famous women who wear [or wore] hats, and occasions for wearing hats through the years. Phyllis Barkey has a large display of hats and will dazzle us with fun facts.
